

Join KJH Drama Club!

Drama club at Kenmore Junior High

Experience theater up close and personally through improvisation games and performing every week for the group.

Open to all students. Space is LIMITED.

There will be a Fall, Winter and Spring Drama Session with each class being held once per week for two hours right after school.

Fall session begins Tuesday September 21st and runs thru October 26th in the Cafeteria.

Cost is $25 payable to KJH PTSA

Activities will include: theater sports (fast thinking, confidence building, and imagination games.) SHORT SKITS, monologues,  how to audition, using props, Stage directions, The opportunity to attend a local show and more!

Drama can give kids confidence in front of a group, improve reading out loud skills, exercise the imagination and develop quick thinking. It also stresses the importance of teamwork.

Drama Club will be taught by Sara Mutal, an Arrowhead mom with a B.F.A Degree in Theater and professional acting experience and the current Youth Theatre Director at Woodinville Repertory Theatre. For more information call 425-402-8538 or email sara@mutal.net
